

SENATORS HOLLY MITCHELL AND MELISSA HURTADO
INVITE YOU TO A PUBLIC HEARING FROM THE SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON THE SOCIAL DETERMINANTS OF CHILDREN'S WELL-BEING

The Healthcare Workforce Shortage and Social Determinants in the Central Valley

Monday, July 15, 2019 • 10 am – 12:30 pm

Fresno City Hall • Council Chambers, 2nd Floor • 2600 Fresno St., Fresno

Please join Committee Chair Senator Holly J. Mitchell, Senator Melissa Hurtado, and other legislators for the second of six hearings on the social determinants of child well-being across California. The focus of this hearing is the Central Valley's healthcare shortage and issues including environment, land use, transportation, immigration, civic engagement, and more. Interpretation services will be provided for Spanish, Hmong, Zapoteco, and Mixteco speakers. Members of the public are encouraged to provide comments at the hearing. For more information or to RSVP, contact Luan Huynh at 916.651.4030 or LUAN.HUYNH@SEN.CA.GOV, or visit WWW.SENATE.CA.GOV/2961/SOCIALDETERMINANTS.

SAVE THE DATE FOR THE NEXT HEARING: OCTOBER 2019 IN LOS ANGELES